Master of Disguise

Dr. ANNE R. MURRAY, Ed.D.

Master of Disguise is a historical novel, centered on the American Revolutionary War. It is a story of courage, strength and bravery. The story depicted aspects of what happened due to the results of war.

The main characters tell of a time when life was difficult, a time that lost its innocence and a time for all to thrive on living. The historical era determined our fate and our future.

Yet, thanks to our founding fathers, Americans have been blessed with liberty and freedom. Life was not the same after we won our independence from Great Britain. We could actually breathe easier – to live freely how we chose.

Read about the plight of the main characters in the story. Discover their secret of survival. Explore the dimensions of time during that period. Learn how they prepared for the future of their nation.
